“ Carolyn, Terry, Lane & Family,

It is with sincere sadness to read about the passing of your dear son Wally. We know how much Wally was loved and Wally knew he had the love of a good Christain family. Please know you all are in our prayers and are also, in the thoughts of your many friends. May God bless and give you all peace, love and comfort as only he is able to provide. God is always, near the broken hearted and may he help your broken hearts to heal and be with you all during this difficult time and in the coming days, and wrap you all in his loving arms. Carolyn, you are a strong, loving Christain woman and MOM. We know Wally's family is not going to forget Wally, because God has given us all the beautiful gift of running into our love ones on MEMORY LANE, time and again, and what a precious memory it is. Please remember, your family have a lot of love from your friends, and many prayers are going up for your family. Stay strong, and lean on each other.

Your friends,

Marion & Linda Dawkins
